

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Strathmore Community Rugby Trust	Angus	£99,982	This group will use funding to support a three year project that will help young people in Angus build their rugby training and coaching skills, to enhance health and wellbeing.
Children in Scotland	City of Edinburgh	£62,250	This group will use funding to run the two year 'My Rights, My Say. Building Bridges' project, led by young advisors aged 12-15 year old with additional support needs (ASN), aims to empower and connect children and young people with ASN across Scotland while bridging the gap with education professionals.
Granton Youth Ltd	City of Edinburgh	£53,481	This group will use the funding to support up to 60 young people aged 14-25, in Granton, Edinburgh across two years. The young people will be supported to volunteer, peer mentor and work toward accreditation with recognised awards.
Lothian Autistic Society	City of Edinburgh	£99,518	This group will provide wrap around support and mentoring for 45 young people with autism and other developmental disabilities, aged 12-18 years old in Edinburgh and the surrounding area, over three years.
Multi-Cultural Family Base	City of Edinburgh	£65,785	This group will use two years funding to deliver and expand their Young Ambassadors programme, for 60 young people aged 12-15.
Passion4Fusion	City of Edinburgh	£65,529	This group will use funding to develop and expand their sports outreach, volunteering and peer mentoring programme for up to 200 young people from ethnically minoritised communities, aged eight-24 years.
The Fruitmarket Gallery	City of Edinburgh	£57,286	This group will use their funding to engage with young people from three underrepresented groups (blind and visually impaired, ethnically minoritised communities, and LGBTQIA+ young people), over two years, in Edinburgh within the arts sector to create three bodies of work to be exhibited at the Fruitmarket Gallery.
Think Circus SCIO	City of Edinburgh	£49,415	This group will use the funding to support up to 65 girls from primary six to first year in high school in Edinburgh, over two years.
Dumfries & Galloway Arts Festival	Dumfries and Galloway	£87,843	This group will use the funding to continue to expand and strengthen their young people led programmes, providing high-quality opportunities for young people in Dumfries and Galloway to develop their creative skills, build connections, and access professional opportunities in the arts and music industries.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Xcel Youth Trust	Dumfries and Galloway	£45,000	This group will use the funding to continue to deliver a range of activities aimed at improving the lives of the young people aged eight-24 in Eskdale.
Dundee and Angus ADHD Support Group	Dundee City	£94,071	The group will use the funding to run a youth group programme for young people affected by ADHD and their families.
Seal Dunfermline SCIO	Fife	£87,844	This group will use the funding to expand their current groupwork provision from fortnightly to weekly sessions, for young people experiencing social exclusion and isolation across West Fife.
Achieve More! Scotland	Glasgow City	£99,800	This group will use the funding to continue their volunteering and mentoring programme for children and young people aged 14-24 in Glasgow.
Crossroads Youth and Community Association	Glasgow City	£100,000	This group will use the funding to continue their core youth programme for young people aged eight-16 with after school, weekend and school holiday provision.
Impact Arts (Projects) Limited	Glasgow City	£99,808	This group will deliver two, 12-week creative employability programme for young people aged 16-24 in Glasgow who have left school early or struggled in formal education.
Jhankar Beats (SCIO)	Glasgow City	£33,438	The group will deliver a one year programme of dance classes themed around creative and modern Indian subcontinental dancing styles to promote the physical, mental and emotional wellbeing of 150 children and young people aged eight-24 in the Gorbals and Darley areas of Glasgow.
Move On	Glasgow City	£25,816	This group will use the funding to create a peer-led Wellbeing Ambassador Programme over 15 months to benefit young people across their services in Glasgow and Edinburgh.
National Autistic Society	Glasgow City	£99,402	This group will use funding over two years to continue and expand, the Empower Up Programme, providing online and in-person social group sessions for children and young people with autism across Scotland.
Scottish Music Information Centre LTD	Glasgow City	£100,000	This group will use funding to deliver one-to-one and group music tuition to care experienced young people (CEYP) aged five-24 years across Scotland using a trauma-informed relational model to build positive relationships with young people experiencing difficult circumstances.
SiMY Community Development	Glasgow City	£99,487	The group will use the funding over three years to run their weekly contact groups, weekend mini-adventures and school holiday programmes for children and young people aged eight-18 in Townhead and surrounding areas.
Wing Tsjun Scotland SCIO	Glasgow City	£34,360	This group will use the funding to improve physical, mental and emotional wellbeing through their free youth group activities including table top games, outdoor exercise, trips and anti-violence work.
Youth Initiatives Scotland (SCIO)	Glasgow City	£61,470	The group will use the funding to expand their youth-led volunteering initiative in Pollok over three years.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Aban Outdoor Ltd	Highland	£73,634	This group based in Merkinch, Inverness, will use the funding to empower young people aged eight-24 through outdoor adventure activities and volunteering opportunities that aim to improve wellbeing, foster community connections, and strengthen skills for future employment or enterprise.
Brora and District Action Group	Highland	£50,000	This group will use the funding to support the staffing and running costs of their drop-in youth club based in Brora, which aims to support 100 children and young people aged 11-18 to build social connections, improve mental health and wellbeing and support their next steps into employment through learning and development, over three years.
Moniack Mhor Limited	Highland	£98,696	This group will use the funding to deliver a creative writing programme for young people in the Highlands, who may have experience of the care system, are a person with a disability, or are from a marginalised background.
Artlink Edinburgh and the Lothians	Midlothian	£91,729	This project will support 14 neurodiverse young people aged 12-24 in Midlothian over three years to develop interest-based activities and workshops. These young people will lead sessions and share their skills with a wider group of up to 30 peers in the same age range.
Mayfield and Easthouses Youth 2000 Project	Midlothian	£54,981	This group will use the funding to support up to 100 young people each year in Mayfield and Easthouses, through weekly drop-in sessions, four annual group work programmes, two holiday programmes, and outdoor climate focused activities. It will expand a successful health and wellbeing initiative, building resilience for young people, developing leadership skills and providing the opportunity for accredited pathways.
ReBOOT (Moray Computer Recycling)	Moray	£75,000	This group will use the funding to expand its support for young people with disabilities aged 16-24 in Moray, increasing annual participation from 32 to 60. The project will introduce a new holistic, youth-led approach, offering work experience, employability skills, and social and life skills development in a safe and supportive environment.
Focus Youth Project SCIO	North Lanarkshire	£99,999	This group will use the funding to deliver a three year programme of social, outdoor, educational, and wellbeing focused activities for young people from Viewpark and the surrounding areas. The project will work with 90 young people and provide 13 volunteering opportunities over three years.
Just Dive In CIC	Renfrewshire	£48,000	This group will use the funding to provide 30 young people aged 14-24 with a 12-month programme of training, experience and certification that will help them to find training and employment opportunities in the aquatic sector.
Launch It Trust Paisley	Renfrewshire	£98,420	This group will use the funding to continue and develop their enterprise hub and support programme for young entrepreneurs in Renfrewshire. Over three years, the project will work with at least 120 young people and 24 volunteers.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Pachedu	Renfrewshire	£99,000	The group will use the funding to support a youth-led programme of physical and social activities, personal development and skills training for 30-50 young people, aged 14-24, from ethnically minoritised communities in the Renfrewshire area.
ReMode Renfrewshire CIC	Renfrewshire	£99,893	This group will use funding to deliver interlinked, youth-led creative activities and volunteering opportunities centred around the theme of promoting and understanding sustainable fashion. The group gives participants the opportunity to explore Paisley's rich textiles and weaving history, with support from Paisley Museum, Create Paisley and Barshaw Community Gardens.
Peeblesshire Youth Trust (SCIO)	Scottish Borders	£90,000	This group will use the funding to continue to provide support to primary children transitioning to high school, who have low confidence or difficulty communicating. Between 90 and 120 children will benefit from the core programme over three years with 300 aged 10-14 participating in total, along with 150 volunteers.
Hansel Alliance	South Ayrshire	£55,000	This group will use funding to support young people with additional support needs as they move towards paid employment. Based in Symington near Ayr, the project offers horticultural and ground maintenance work experience, training and qualifications in volunteering and health and wellbeing, personal development and support.
Hyzone Limited	South Lanarkshire	£94,224	The group will use the funding to continue to deliver a relational youth project which promotes inclusivity and equality. Young people will be supported to form positive relationships with their peers and their community, to reduce isolation and improve wellbeing. The project will be delivered by way of a zone framework. This three-year project will work with approximately 180 young people and 25 volunteers from the Hamilton area.
ACTS Scotland CIC	Stirling	£65,610	The group will use the funding to continue to deliver an employability programme aimed at young people in the Forth Valley who are disengaged from school, or who are not in formal education, employment or training.
West Dunbartonshire Gymnastics Club SCIO	West Dunbartonshire	£77,144	This group will use the funding to continue and develop their Flip and Thrive-after school clubs and gymnastics holiday camp places that will benefit 290 children aged eight-16, over three years.
Carers of West Lothian	West Lothian	£100,000	This group will use the funding to establish and support a group of Young Carers Ambassadors who will lead on projects and act as a point of contact for other young carers in their own high schools across West Lothian, as well as supporting the transition of younger carers from primary school to secondary school. This project will benefit up to 453 young people over three years.
Diversified	West Lothian	£100,000	This group will use the funding to deliver programmes to help tackle social isolation and create positive destinations for young people with autism aged 11-18, primarily in West Lothian with some young people travelling from Edinburgh, East Lothian, Falkirk, Forth and Fife. This project will benefit around 300 young people and 18 volunteers over the course of two years.